DEFINITIONS

"Audit Committee" means a committee constituted by the Board of Directors of the Company in accordance with Section 177 of the Companies Act, 2013 read with rules framed thereunder and Regulation 18 of the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015.

"Board" means the Board of Directors of the Company.

"Company" means IndoStar Capital Finance Limited.

"Employee" means all the present employees, including employees on-roll, off-roll or on contract basis, including all Director(s) of the Company.

"Protected Disclosure" means a concern raised by a stakeholder through a written communication and made in good faith which discloses or demonstrates information about an unethical or improper activity under the title "SCOPE OF THE POLICY" with respect to the Company. It should be factual and not speculative or in the nature of an interpretation / conclusion and should contain as much specific information as possible to allow for proper assessment of the nature and extent of the concern.

"Subject" means a person or group of persons against or in relation to whom a Protected Disclosure is made or evidence gathered during the course of an investigation.

"Vigilance and Ethics Officer" means an officer appointed as such, from time to time, to receive Protected Disclosures from Whistle Blowers, maintaining records, ensuring disposal thereof, placing the same before the Audit Committee, if deemed to be necessary, for its disposal and informing the Whistle Blower the result thereof.

"Whistle Blower" is a person / group of persons who make a Protected Disclosure(s) under this Policy and also referred in this Policy as complainant.

ELIGIBILITY

All stakeholders, including Directors and Employee(s) of the Company are eligible to make Protected Disclosures under the Policy in relation to matters concerning the Company.

RECEIPT AND DISPOSAL OF PROTECTED DISCLOSURES

- All Protected Disclosures should be reported in writing by the complainant as soon as possible after the Whistle Blower becomes aware of the same so as to ensure a clear understanding of the issues raised and should either be typed or written in a legible handwriting in English.
- The Protected Disclosure should be submitted in a closed and secured envelope and should be super scribed as “Protected Disclosure under the Whistle Blower Policy/ Vigil Mechanism”. Alternatively, the same can also be sent through email with the subject “Protected Disclosure under the Whistle Blower Policy/ Vigil Mechanism”. If the complaint is not super scribed and closed as mentioned above, it will not be possible to protect the Whistle Blower and the Protected Disclosure will be dealt with as if a normal disclosure. In order to protect identity of the complainant, the Vigilance and Ethics Officer will not issue any acknowledgement to the Whistle Blower and they are advised neither to write their name/ address on the envelope nor enter into any further correspondence with the Vigilance and Ethics Officer. The Vigilance and Ethics Officer shall assure that in case any further clarification is required he will get in touch with the complainant.
- A Protected Disclosure to the extent possible should include such information about the alleged violation like the nature of the suspected violation; the identities of persons involved in the suspected violation; a description of documents that relate to the suspected violation; and the time frame during which the suspected violation occurred.
- Anonymous / Pseudonymous disclosure shall not be entertained by the Vigilance and Ethics Officer.
- The Protected Disclosure should be forwarded under a covering letter signed by the Whistle Blower. The Vigilance and Ethics Officer / CEO / Chairman of the Audit Committee as the case may be, shall detach the covering letter bearing the identity of the Whistle Blower and process only the Protected Disclosure.
- All Protected Disclosures should be addressed to the Vigilance and Ethics Officer of the Company. The contact details of the Vigilance and Ethics Officer is as under:

INVESTIGATION

- All Protected Disclosures under this Policy will be recorded and thoroughly investigated. The Audit Committee may investigate and / or may at its discretion consider involving any other officer of the Company and / or an outside agency for the purpose of investigation.
- The decision to conduct an investigation is by itself not an accusation and is to be treated as a neutral fact finding process.
- Subject(s) will normally be informed in writing of the allegations at the outset of a formal investigation and have opportunities for providing their inputs during the investigation.
- Subject(s) shall have a duty to co-operate with the investigating officer(s).

- Subject(s) have a responsibility not to interfere with the investigation. Evidence shall not be withheld, destroyed or tampered with and witness shall not be influenced, coached, threatened or intimidated by the Subject(s) or any other Employee / Director of the Company.
- Unless there are compelling reasons not to do so, Subject(s) will be given the opportunity to respond to material findings contained in the investigation report. No allegation of wrong doing against a Subject(s) shall be considered as maintainable unless there is good evidence in support of the allegation.
- Subject(s) have a right to be informed of the outcome of the investigations. If allegations are not sustained, the Subject should be consulted as to whether public disclosure of the investigation results would be in the best interest of the Subject and the Company.
- The investigation shall be completed normally within 90 days of the receipt of the Protected Disclosure and is extendable by such period as the Audit Committee deems fit.

DECISION AND REPORTING

- If an investigation leads to a conclusion that an improper or unethical act has been committed, the Vigilance and Ethics Officer / CEO / Chairman of Audit Committee / Audit Committee shall recommend to the management of the Company to take such disciplinary or corrective action as deemed fit. It is clarified that any disciplinary or corrective action initiated against the Subject as a result of the findings of an investigation pursuant to this Policy shall adhere to the applicable personnel or staff conduct and disciplinary procedures.
- The Vigilance and Ethics Officer shall submit a report to the Chairman of the Audit Committee on a regular basis about all Protected Disclosures referred to him since the last report together with the results of investigations, if any. The report shall be quarterly discussed in the Audit Committee. If the Protected Disclosure is against any member of the Audit Committee (including the Chairman of the Committee) such an individual shall recuse from the proceedings of the Audit Committee when the matter is being discussed.
- In case the Subject is the CEO of the Company, the Chairman of the Audit Committee after examining the Protected Disclosure shall forward the protected disclosure to other members of the Audit Committee if deemed fit. The Audit Committee shall appropriately and expeditiously investigate the Protected Disclosure.
- If the report of investigation is not to the satisfaction of the Whistle Blower, the Whistle Blower has the right to report the event to the appropriate legal or investigating agency.
- A Whistle Blower who makes false allegations of unethical & improper practices or about alleged wrongful conduct of the Subject, shall be subject to appropriate disciplinary action in accordance with the rules, procedures and policies of the Company.

SECRECY/ CONFIDENTIALITY

The Whistle Blower, Vigilance and Ethics Officer, Members of Audit Committee, CEO, the Subject and everybody involved in the process shall:

- Maintain confidentiality of all matters under this Policy;
- Discuss only to the extent or with those persons as required under this Policy for completing the process of investigations;
- Not keep the papers related to any Protected Disclosures or related investigation unattended anywhere at any time;
- Keep in a secure manner all the electronic mails / files related to any Protected Disclosure or related investigation.

PROTECTION

- No unfair treatment will be meted out to a Whistle Blower by virtue of his / her having reported a Protected Disclosure under this Policy. The Company, as a policy, condemns any kind of discrimination, harassment, victimization or any other unfair employment practice being adopted against Whistle Blowers. Complete protection will, therefore, be given to Whistle Blowers against any unfair practice like retaliation, threat or intimidation of termination / suspension of service, disciplinary action, transfer, demotion, refusal of promotion or the like including any direct or indirect use of authority to obstruct the Whistle Blower's right to continue to perform his/her duties /functions including making further Protected Disclosure. The Company will take steps to minimize difficulties, which the Whistle Blower may experience as a result of making the Protected Disclosure. If the Whistle Blower is required to give evidence in criminal or disciplinary proceedings, the Company may arrange for the Whistle Blower to receive advice about the procedure, etc.
- A Whistle Blower may report any violation of the above clause, in the manner in which Protected Disclosure is made, and such violation shall be investigated into, as a Protected Disclosure.
- The identity of the Whistle Blower shall be kept confidential to the extent possible and permitted under law. The identity of the complainant will not be revealed unless he himself has made either his details public or disclosed his identity to any other office or authority. In the event of the identity of the Whistle Blower being disclosed, the Audit Committee is authorized to initiate appropriate action as per extant regulations against the person or agency making such disclosure. The identity of the Whistle Blower, if known, shall remain confidential to those persons directly involved in applying this Policy, unless the issue requires investigation by law enforcement agencies, in which case relevant members of the organization are subject to subpoena.
- Any other person assisting in the said investigation shall also be protected to the same extent as the Whistle Blower.

- The Whistle Blower, before making a complaint should have reasonable belief that an issue exists and he / she has acted in good faith. Any complaint not made in good faith as assessed as such by the Audit Committee shall be viewed seriously and the Whistle Blower shall be subject to disciplinary action as per the rules / certified standing orders of the Company. This Policy does not protect a complainant from an adverse action taken independent of his disclosure of unethical and improper practice etc. unrelated to a disclosure made pursuant to this Policy.
