

WHISTLE BLOWER POLICY AND VIGIL MECHANISM

Version 9.0

1. PREFACE

- 1.1. In terms of the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 read with rules framed thereunder (“Act”), the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 (“LODR Regulations”) and the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 (“PIT Regulations”) every listed company, is required to establish a whistle blower policy/vigil mechanism for its stakeholders, including the Directors and the Employees, to report genuine concerns regarding the Company and provide adequate safeguards against victimization of the Director(s) or the Employee(s) and/or any other person who avails the mechanism and also provide for direct access to the chairperson of the Audit Committee in appropriate or exceptional cases.
- 1.2. In compliance with the provisions of the Act, the LODR Regulations and the PIT Regulations on recommendation of the Audit Committee, the Board has adopted this whistle blower policy and vigil mechanism (“Policy”), in order to provide a mechanism to stakeholders of the Company, including the Directors and the Employees and their representative bodies, to report and freely communicate their concerns about illegal or unethical practices within the Company, to appropriate authorities.

2. OBJECTIVES

- 2.1. The Company is committed to adhere to the highest standards of ethical, moral and legal conduct of its business operations. To maintain these standards, the Company encourages its stakeholders including the Directors and the Employees, who have concerns about suspected misconduct or any illegal or improper conduct and/or unethical practices within the Company or on the part of any Employee or a consultant, supplier, client, counterparty or any other third party, to come forward and express these concerns without fear of punishment or unfair treatment. The Policy provides a channel to report to the management, concerns about unethical behavior, actual or suspected fraud or violation of various laws applicable to the Company and codes or policies of the Company or suspected misconduct or any illegal or improper conduct.
- 2.2. The Policy neither releases the Director(s) and / or Employee(s) from their duty of confidentiality in the course of their work nor can it be used as a route for raising frivolous, malicious or unfounded allegations against people in authority and/ or colleagues in general.

3. SCOPE OF THE POLICY

- 3.1. The Policy covers and is applicable to the Protected Disclosures related to malpractices, misconduct, illegal or improper conduct and/or unethical practices and events which have taken place / suspected to have taken place and reported by Whistle Blowers (defined later) related to violation of the Code of Conduct Policy including without limitation:

 - b) Whether the same Protected Disclosure was raised previously by anyone, and if so, the outcome thereof;
 - c) Whether the same Protected Disclosure was raised previously on the same Subject;
 - d) Details of actions taken for processing / disposing the complaint;
 - e) Findings of the Investigation Lead;
 - f) The recommendations of the Disciplinary Committee/ Committee of Executives/ Audit Committee if any.
- 7.5. Investigation Lead and Committee of Executives or Disciplinary Committee shall ensure the following:
- The decision to conduct an investigation is by itself not an accusation and is to be treated as a neutral fact-finding process;
 - Subject(s) will normally be informed in writing of the allegations at the outset of a formal investigation and have opportunities for providing their inputs during the investigation. Subject(s) shall have a duty to co-operate with the investigating officer(s). Subject(s) have a responsibility not to interfere with the investigation. Evidence shall not be withheld, destroyed or tampered with and witness shall not be influenced, coached, threatened or intimidated by the Subject(s) or any other Employee / Director of the Company;
 - Unless there are compelling reasons not to do so (to be recorded in writing), subject(s) will be given the opportunity to respond to material findings contained in the investigation report. No allegation of wrong doing against a Subject(s) shall be considered as maintainable unless there is good evidence in support of the allegation.
 - The investigation shall be completed normally within 90 (Ninety) days of the receipt of the Protected Disclosure and which shall be extendable by such period as the Audit Committee deems fit.

8. DECISION AND REPORTING

- 8.1. If an investigation leads to a conclusion that a malpractice, misconduct, illegal or improper conduct, unethical practice or act has been committed, the Investigation Lead(s) shall recommend to the respective Findings and Action approving authority, as per abovementioned protocols, such disciplinary or corrective action as it deems fit, which may include issuance or warning, imposition of fine, suspension from official duties. It is clarified that any disciplinary or corrective action initiated against the Subject as a result of the findings of an investigation pursuant to this Policy shall adhere to the applicable personnel or staff Conduct and Disciplinary procedures.
- 8.2. The Vigilance and Ethics Officer shall submit a report, on quarterly basis, to the chairman of the Audit Committee on a periodic basis about all Protected Disclosures referred to him since the last report together with the results of investigations, if any. The report shall be quarterly discussed in the Audit Committee. If the Protected Disclosure is against any member of the Audit Committee (including the chairman of the Audit Committee) then he/she shall be recused from the proceedings of the Audit Committee when the matter is being discussed.
- 8.3. The Whistle Blower, before making a complaint should have reasonable belief that an issue exists and he / she has acted in good faith. A Whistle Blower who makes false allegations of unethical & improper practices or about alleged wrongful conduct of the Subject, intentionally files false disclosure as assessed as such by the Audit Committee shall be viewed seriously and the Whistle Blower shall be subject to disciplinary action in accordance with the rules, procedures and policies of the Company.

9. SECRECY/ CONFIDENTIALITY

- 9.1. The Whistle Blower, Vigilance and Ethics Officer, Chief Executive Officer, Chairman of Audit Committee, investigation leads, findings and action approving authority, the Subject and any other person who is involved in the process shall:
- Maintain confidentiality of all matters under this Policy;
 - Discuss only to the extent or with those persons as required under this Policy for completing the process of investigations;
 - Not keep the papers related to any Protected Disclosures or related investigation unattended anywhere at any time;
 - Keep in a secure manner all the electronic mails / files related to any Protected Disclosure or related investigation;
 - Undertake reasonable steps to safeguard information which comes across during the reporting/investigation process, to use such information only for the reasons it was supplied and not to share it with third parties, unless in compliance with applicable laws and regulations.

10. PROTECTION AVAILABLE

- 10.1. To ensure that this Policy is adhered to, and to assure that the concerns will be acted upon seriously, it will be ensured that no unfair treatment will be meted out to a Whistle Blower by virtue of his / her having reported a Protected Disclosure under this Policy. The Company, as a policy, condemns any kind of discrimination, harassment, victimization or any other unfair employment practice being adopted against Whistle Blowers. Complete protection will, therefore, be given to Whistle Blowers against any unfair practice like retaliation, threat or intimidation of termination / suspension of service / disciplinary action, transfer, demotion, refusal of promotion or the like including any direct or indirect use of authority to obstruct the Whistle Blower's right to continue to perform his/her duties /functions including making further Protected Disclosure.
- 10.2. If the Whistle Blower is required to give evidence in criminal or disciplinary proceedings, the Company may arrange for the Whistle Blower to receive advice about the procedure, etc.
- 10.3. A Whistle Blower may report any violation of the above clause, in the manner in which Protected Disclosure is made, and such violation shall be investigated into, as a Protected Disclosure.
- 10.4. The identity of the Whistle Blower shall be kept confidential by the Company, unless he himself/she herself has made either his/her details public or disclosed his/her identity to any other office or authority.
- 10.5. In the event of the identity of the Whistle Blower being disclosed, the Audit Committee or Findings and action approving authority is authorized to initiate appropriate action as per extant regulations against the person or agency making such disclosure. The identity of the Whistle Blower, if known, shall remain confidential to those persons directly involved in applying this Policy, unless the issue requires investigation by law enforcement agencies, in which case relevant members of the organization are subject to subpoena.
- 10.6. If the Whistle Blower believes that he/she is victimized or has suffered adverse or unfair treatment or retaliation due to him/her making of the Protected Disclosure, he/she may file an application before the Vigilance and Ethics Officer, Chief Executive Officer, Chairman of Audit Committee or the Chief Compliance Officer seeking redressal in the matter. The Company shall take such action, as deem fit including, without limitation, any measures required to prevent/reverse initiation of any adverse action against the Whistle Blower.
- 10.7. Any other person assisting in the said investigation shall also be protected to the same extent as the Whistle Blower.

10.8. This Policy does not protect a complainant from an adverse action taken independent of his disclosure of unethical and improper practice etc. unrelated to a disclosure made pursuant to this Policy.

10.9. The Policy may not be used as a protection by any Employee against whom disciplinary action has been taken and/or is already in process under the Company's rules and policies.

11. COMMUNICATION

11.1. The Policy shall also be placed on the website of the Company as well as on the H.R Portal of the Company. This Policy is to be made available to all new employees of the Company at the time of joining, new hires should certify their understanding of the Company's Whistleblower Policy
